

5th Annual
Science & Bible – 21st Century Understanding

Saturday, May 16, 2015

St. Lucas Community Church
 1195 Manning Ave. N.
 Lake Elmo, MN 55042

I-94, exit 253, then 1.1 miles
 north on Manning Ave. N

Live presentations by Jay Seegert and Paul Kampe. Hear the latest scientific data which connects history and the Bible, how to apply it to your life, and share it with others. A detailed brochure is downloadable at www.stlucascc.org Reconnect history, science and the Bible.

8:00-8:45	Registration
8:50-9:00	Opening remarks and speaker introduction – Pastor Dan Peterson, St. Lucas Community Church
9:00-10:00	Scientific Evidence for the Inspiration of the Bible – Jay Seegert
10:00-10:15	Break , book table, fossil room and snacks available
10:15-11:15	Noah's Ark of Salvation – Paul Kampe
11:15-11:30	Break, book table, fossil room and snacks available
11:30-12:30	Creation vs. Evolution - The Case from Science – Jay Seegert
12:30-1:30	Lunch is available for purchase or bring a bag lunch. Fruit and snacks will also be available.
1:30-2:30	Dinosaurs and the Bible – Jay Seegert

This is a family event.

Babysitting is included

Children's activities – Creation science instructor Sarah Gahl

Snacks at reasonable prices

Lunch (hind quarter of chicken, rice and vegetable)

$2.75 for early registration. $3.75 after May 11.

Children 8 and under – any donation.

Book table

Enhance your Spiritual confidence with the facts and compelling reasons for your faith so that you can give a reasoned answer to yourself and others. Reconnect history, science and the Bible.

Registration on-line at:

www.stlucascc.org

COST: Register on-line by May 11 so we can better plan at: www.stlucascc.org Also, you can get reduced meal costs by registering. Check must be mailed and postmarked by May 11, 2015. This helps us plan and saves you money.

Fossils

Noah's Ark

Archaeology

Dinosaurs

Caveman

